Banksy first executed this work in Jerusalem in 2003, painting it on the city's West Bank barrier wall that separates Israel from its Occupied Territories. The image -which has been endlessly replicated since-depicts a protestor, sometimes referred to as "the masked thug," caught in the act of hurling.a bouquet of colorful flowers, not a Molotov cocktail.

The carpenter made "slow work of it" (more than two weeks, actually) and so the men set out on their first expedition by foot "well armed ... with every man his musket, sword and corslet" and led by Myles Standish. That same day they also brought many others ashore simply to "refresh themselves", and even the women and teenage girls ...

"This is a delightful and funny adventure ... It is also lonely, dangerous and frightening."--THE LONDON TIMES He survived a terrifying crocodile attack off Australia's Queensland coast, blood poisoning in the middle of the Pacific, malaria in Indonesia and China, and acute mountain sickness in the Himalayas. He was hit by a car and left for dead with two broken legs in Colorado, and incarcerated for espionage on the Sudan-Egypt border. The first in a thrilling adventure trilogy, Dark Waters charts one of the longest, most gruelling, yet uplifting and at times irreverently funny journeys in history, circling the world using just the power of the human body, hailed by the London Sunday Times as "The last great first for circumnavigation." But it was more than just a physical challenge. Prompted by what scientists have dubbed the "perfect storm" as the global population soars to 8.3 billion by 2030, adventurer Jason Lewis used The Expedition to reach out to thousands of schoolchildren, calling attention to our interconnectedness and shared responsibility of an inhabitable Earth for future generations. * * WINNER of the BENJAMIN FRANKLIN AWARD & ERIC HOFFER AWARD * * "Often funny and irreverent, always frank and authentic, Lewis's first volume of The Expedition series is also marked by the thrills of a first-rate adventure."--FOREWORD REVIEWS "Skating through Alabama with long hair, duct tape on the nipples, and women's culottes ... What were you thinking?"--JAY LENO, The Tonight Show "A riveting true-life adventure as inspiring as it is thrilling."--UTNE READER "An extraordinary expedition on an epic scale."--BEN FOGLE, television presenter and adventurer "Last great first for circumnavigation."--THE SUNDAY TIMES "Truly a tale for our time. You really smell, taste and breathe this journey in a way that is only possible by travelling more slowly."--ROYAL SCOTTISH GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY

"A treasure of a book."--David McCullough The harrowing story of a pathbreaking naval expedition that set out to map the entire Pacific Ocean, dwarfing Lewis and Clark with its discoveries, from the New York Times bestselling author of Valiant Ambition and In the Hurricane's Eye. A New York Times Notable Book America's first frontier was not the West; it was the sea, and no one writes more eloquently about that watery wilderness than Nathaniel Philbrick. In his bestselling In the Heart of the Sea Philbrick probed the nightmarish dangers of the vast Pacific. Now, in an epic sea adventure, he writes about one of the most ambitious voyages of discovery the Western world has ever seen--the U.S. Exploring Expedition of 1838-1842. On a scale that dwarfed the journey of Lewis and Clark, six magnificent sailing vessels and a crew of hundreds set out to map the entire Pacific Ocean and ended up naming the newly discovered continent of Antarctica, collecting what would become the basis of the Smithsonian Institution. Combining spellbinding human drama and meticulous research, Philbrick reconstructs the dark saga of the voyage to show why, instead of being celebrated and revered as that of Lewis and Clark, it has--until now--been relegated to a footnote in the national memory. Winner of the Theodore and Franklin D. Roosevelt Naval History Prize
