"Traumatic or adverse experiences are pervasive among school-aged children and youth. These experiences undermine students' ability to learn, form relationships, and manage their feelings and behaviour. Meanwhile, educators and school-based professionals often remain unaware of the complex needs of their students or how to meet them within the hours of the typical school day, all while possibly dealing with their own stressors. Supporting and Educating Traumatized Students: A Guide for School-Based Professionals provides a practically oriented tool for understanding and assisting students with a history of trauma. Designed specifically for professionals in mental health and education settings, this volume combines content and expertise from practitioners, researchers, and other experts with backgrounds in education, school psychology, school social work, school administration, resilience, school policy, and trauma. The book provides a thorough background on current research in trauma and its impact on school functioning; administrative and policy considerations; and a broad set of practical and implementable strategies and resources for adapting and differentiating instruction, modifying the classroom and school environments, and building competency for students and staff impacted by trauma. Rather than provide complex treatment protocols, the chapters in this book offer simple techniques and strategies designed for all types of educational environments within the context of multiple potential sources of trauma. Supporting and Educating Traumatized Students is an essential resource for classroom teachers, administrators, and school-based professionals, as well as courses that address crisis, trauma, and education across a broad spectrum of specializations."--

Peri was a pixie Who lived in a magic wood. He helped his many woodland friends As often as he could. His home he made beneath the roots Of a very old oak tree. Carpets were of soft, sheep's wool And given to him free. Peri the Pixie lives in his very old oak tree in the magic wood with lots of friends - Fluff the Rabbit, Flash the Hare, Igor the Eagle, Max the Mouse and many, many more. One day he gets a letter from Blink, one of his friends, and he decides to visit him at the seaside. But. oh dear! What is this? While Peri has been away, the wicked goblins Nab and Grab have stolen spells from Mr Jinks the Wizard and a terrible storm has hit the magic wood! What will happen to Peri and his lovely house? Perhaps his woodland friends will have to help him.

Vertical Readings in Dante's Comedy is a reappraisal of the poem by an international team of thirty-four scholars. Each vertical reading analyses three same-numbered cantos from the three canticles: Inferno i, Purgatorio i and Paradiso i; Inferno ii, Purgatorio ii and Paradiso ii; etc. Although scholars have suggested before that there are correspondences between same-numbered cantos that beg to be explored, this is the first time that the approach has been pursued in a systematic fashion across the poem. This collection – to be issued in three volumes – offers an unprecedented repertoire of vertical readings for the whole poem. As the first volume exemplifies, vertical reading not only articulates unexamined connections between the three canticles but also unlocks engaging new ways to enter into core concerns of the poem. The three volumes thereby provide an indispensable resource for scholars, students and enthusiasts of Dante. The volume has its origin in a series of thirty-three public lectures held in Trinity College, the University of Cambridge (2012-2016) which can be accessed at the 'Cambridge Vertical Readings in Dante's Comedy' website.

These memoirs of the great fellwalker Alfred Wainwright, author of the Pictorial Guides to the Lakeland Fells and many other volumes of walking guides and sketchbooks, are full of his thoughts on life and on his experiences on the fells. Wainwright writes about his boyhood in Blackburn, his work and interests as a young man, and the visit to the Lake District at the age of 23 which kindled in him a lasting passion for the fells. He reveals how he set about researching and compiling the Pictorial Guides, the labour of love which occupied so many years of his life. For walkers and other lovers of the Lakeland fells, this is a great read.

"It's the cure that kills." Former D.C. politico turned private investigator Frank Bennington races to save the life of a friend. In doing so, he finds himself fighting against those representing the entrenched powers of government bureaucracy and corporate greed that would have lives lost to ensure billions in profit. This is the second installment of the very popular Bennington P.I. series. "D.W. Ulsterman has a hit on his hands with Bennington P.I." –MARLOWE "Fast paced and engrossing read." -M. THOMPSON/VINE VOICE

A journey through the liminal spaces of life and spirituality.
