Very few students get a perfect ACT score, even those who get into the country's top colleges. In fact, anyone scoring a 34, 35 or 36 is among the top 1 percent of test-takers in the country. That said, for the country's most selective colleges and universities, you should be aiming to get an ACT composite score of 30 or higher.

However, ACT will supply them at least one full composite score with each superscore, plus all the scores from the test events that are part of the superscore composite. We encourage colleges and universities to consider adding superscoring to their score-use policy because, as our research shows, superscores are just as predictive - if not more predictive - of first-year grades than other scoring methods.
