Anna Eikenhout (1902-1986) was an honors graduate of Ohio State University, a fine-arts librarian, a skilled pianist, and an avid reader in three languages. Harlan Hubbard (1900-1988), a little-known painter and would-be shantyboater, seemed an unlikely husband, but together they lived a life out of the pages of Thoreau's Walden. Much of what is known about the Hubbards comes from Harlan's books and journals. "Meanwhile Anna, the product of a Victorian and Dutch upbringing, was reserved and private. Her feelings were often hidden from her closest friends, from Harlan, and even from herself. The questions that readers of Harlan's books have always asked about Anna have gone unanswered, and the story of her life has been untold - until now."
