"Every important journey should start with a map. Maps guide us and give us direction. The purpose of this introduction is to help students navigate the AP Human Geography course by understanding the expectations involved in class, thus giving students a road map and providing them direction as they start their exploration. For many students, AP Human Geography will be their first venture into a college experience and the AP environment. In addition to this challenge, AP Human Geography may also be their first full yearlong course focused solely on geography. Therefore, it is imperative for students to have an idea of what to anticipate before the year starts"--

In 2014, College Board rolled out a new AP® U.S. History course, which centered less on memorizing content and more on developing skills. Since then, the course has been modified here and there, but very little has changed in AP® textbooks--content is still king. Until now. Fabric of a Nation is the first book to truly embrace this dramatic shift in the AP® course and in how history is taught. Built from the ground up by long-time AP® leaders Jason Stacy and Matthew Ellington, this book offers a new approach to AP® US History by seamlessly integrating: A brief historical narrative AP® skills practice Primary source documents Exact alignment to the AP® course Now, that's revolutionary!
