Working for the police had criminal psychologist Christian Moll losing so much sleep that, despite years of successfully helping investigators unwind the twisted minds of murderers, he decided to call it quits. But when a disturbing pattern in recent cases begins to emerge, he chooses to postpone his self-imposed retirement in order to help out an old flame. Detective Katharina Rosenberg has a new case and a new cop killer on the run. When two colleagues are murdered in rapid succession, a shocking theory emerges: Is someone killing off the detectives Christian worked alongside solving homicide cases? And is Katharina next? Now, Katharina and Christian must team up once again to catch the murderer before it's too late. With their buried passion rising to the surface, they give in to their desire while racing against time to find the vengeful cop killer before he finds them.

Fae, once innocent children changed by the Siis thousands of years before. They are able to intensify and feed off the negative emotions of their prey, and are filled with malicious intent that has no bounds. Can Ana survive the world of the Siis? More importantly, can she do it with her mind still intact? Night of the Fae is the first book in the Phoenix Rising Series, which follows Ana as she is drawn into the secret world of the Siis, an ancient race of empathic beings torn apart by war, treachery and the consequences of past actions.

The boundaries between the worlds have fallen. Forced to integrate the creatures of fantasy into real life, humanity struggles against its disillusionment, prejudice and an inevitable feeling of inadequacy. Once an agent for the embassy that mediates between the worlds, Elizabeth Larson has abandoned her past and slipped into a world of nostalgic addiction to fairy revels, dancing, and the dark lure of her own memories. But when Lockland Sheen, her former partner and lover, goes missing, she is pulled reluctantly back into service. She must venture once more across the borders, into the land that haunts her, facing a string of gruesome murders, the imposing Sidhe rulers and her own addiction in the process. While the Embassy's agents attempt to soothe tensions between the races, Liz and her new partner search the fairy realm for Lockland. Fighting the constant temptation of the revels, they piece together the trail of an unknown enemy. But the longer they follow it, the more it appears that the man they came to rescue is more villain than victim. And the more they rely on Elizabeth's ties to the fairies, the closer she inches toward the madness that lurks behind her fantasies.

The book contains the Exterior Ballistics PC programs that were not possible to be included in the "Exterior Ballistics with Applications" as well as 76 illustration examples and exercises that can be solved mainly using the Exterior Ballistics PC programs presented in this book. The book has 19 PC Programs. The present book is addressed to amateurs and professionals interested in exterior ballistics, and in shooting with small arms, hunting and sporting rifles, and in general to the readers interested in the field of military and applied science. The simple undergraduate mathematics that is used to present the material and the PC programs makes the book attractive to amateurs and training experts that continuously practice to improve the accuracy of shooting with small arms. The small firearm marksmen find in the book simple theoretical explanations to some basics concepts and characteristics of exterior ballistics and practice of shooting with small arms such as the ballistics coefficient, rifleman's rule, inclined fire, mountain firing, firing in non-standard atmosphere and in presence of wind, etc. All explanations as well as the proofs of some fundamental rules of exterior ballistics are based on the flight of the projectile in presence of drag.
