This year it's our year to have Christmas day at MILs and squeeze a visit to all the other parents in around that. We are (touch wood!) moving to a bigger house in the next few weeks and I suggested to DH that MIL comes to us Christmas Day instead. She could stay as long as she wanted. I'm getting really excited about hosting in the new house ...

It begins with Christmas at our house, an original song that sets the mood, followed by the often-recorded Winter Wonderland and the rarely recorded Brook Benton classic This time of the year. Five of the next six songs are (I think) originals, all of a high quality, the non-original being the classic I'll be home for Christmas. I particularly like It must have been the mistletoe and From our ...

The collection of stories in CHRISTMAS AT OUR HOUSE: A PAW PAW'S LEGACY, are the stories written by a grandfather to his grandchildren each Christmas since 1992. It was at the insistence of his grandchildren that he decided to publish them, after they kept asking for a copy of the Christmas stories, Lauriel in particular, pleading for a copy of each one. The family Christmas time now isn't complete without one of "Paw Paw's" stories. The family gathers around and hears the Christmas story read from the Bible; afterward's Paw Paw's story is read about one of the grandchildren, each one eagerly anticipating the story being written about him or her, before the presents are handed out. It has become a family tradition each year.
