construction. If you're an experienced wood framer, you already have many of the skills you'll need. This manual, written by a framer who runs work for one of the largest metal stud contractors in the country, tells you just about everything you need to know to transfer those skills to metal stud framing in commercial buildings.

This is the book for construction professionals who want a clear understanding of alternative materials and how using them can enhance their projects -- both residential and commercial. It covers the materials -- including their strengths and any limitations -- as well as installation tips and manhour estimates. For each product listed, you'll learn where you can get it, including phone numbers and Website addresses of the manufacturers. Every builder needs a Niche. This book is full of new, exciting materials that you can offer your customers with confidence.

Everything you need to know to estimate, build, and repair practically every type of roof covering: asphalt shingles, roll roofing, wood shingles & shakes, clay tile, slate, metal, built-up, and elastomeric. Shows how to measure and estimate most roofs (including estimating shortcuts discovered by the author), how to install leak-proof underlayment and flashing, and how to solve problems with insulation, vapor barriers, and waterproofing. Over 300 large, clear illustrations that help you find the answers to all your roofing questions.

If your computer has Windows and a CD-

ROM drive, the interactive CD Estimator disk enclosed could change forever the way you estimate construction costs. It's the most complete, most timely collection of cost estimates ever offered in machine-readable form: Over 2,500 pages of manhours, labor and material costs for new construction, repair and remodeling work, electrical work, renovation and insurance repair, plumbing and HVAC work, painting and wallcovering. Plus, the National Estimator program for Windows makes it easy to use this cost data to compile construction estimates for nearly any residential, commercial or industrial job.
