Despite its popularity, Kelly Carpenter's Draw Me Close is a mixed bag. Though the message is wonderful and its lyrics are mostly biblical, it is not clear who "you" refers to, making it impossible for those outside the camp of Christ to see this as another love song to a woman. This makes it difficult to bring glory to God.

Does life get you down? Are there days when you just need a little bit of encouragement? Tired of an impersonal approach to devotionals? Now is your chance to experience devotionals in whole new light. Set up in an email format, E-Mels provide personable and encouraging emails at your fingertips. Verses from scripture and moral lessons come alive through the inspiration of well known authors such as C.S. Lewis and John Donne. Important truths are revealed through story telling, exploring songs, learning sign language and much more. Devotionals have never been done quite like this. While e-mail allows you two-way communication with anyone across the world, E-Mels extend past that and open up two way communication between you and God. Allow God to open your mind and heart as you take part in discovering who God is and who we are meant to be in Him. I pray that as you work through these devotions they transform from mere words on a page into inspirations for your life.

The definitive guide to the meaning of today's most popular praise and worship songs. Few things influence Christians' understanding of the faith more than the songs they sing in worship. The explosion of praise and worship music in the last fifteen years has profoundly affected our experience of God. So what are those songs telling us about who God is? In what ways have they made us more faithful disciples of Jesus Christ? In what ways have they failed to embody the full message of the gospel? Working with the lists of the most frequently sung praise and worship songs from recent years, the authors of this book offer an objective but supportive assessment of the meaning and contribution of the Christian music that has been so important in the lives of contemporary believers.

A classic praise song gets new life in this introspective arrangement. Beautifully combined with 'Draw Me Close To You', this is authentic worship... from the heart.
