Do you feel like you're a "pushover"? Do you let other people make all the plans--letting them pick the movie, the restaurant, or the vacation destination? Does self-care feel selfish to you? And do you find yourself feeling resentful toward others because they don't seem to take your needs into consideration? Can you relate? If the answer is yes, this is the book for you! In this book, master coach, speaker, and author Nancy Levin will help you establish clear and healthy boundaries. This isn't easy; many of us don't want to "rock the boat." We assume setting boundaries will lead to conflict. And, unfortunately, by avoiding conflict and not setting limits, we tend to choose long-term unhappiness instead of short-term discomfort. This book includes exercises and practical tools to help even the most conflict-averse, people-pleasing readers learn new habits. You'll learn how to recognize and take inventory of your boundaries, view your boundaries differently by creating a Boundary Pyramid, learn how to say "no" effectively, and set your Bottom-Line Boundary. As your supportive guide, Nancy will show you how to gather the courage to live a life of "boundary badassery." "This work was life-changing for me, and if you're someone who has avoided boundaries for years, it can change your life, too." -- Nancy Levin

The taboo subject of openly refuting free will is now finally out of the closet. Do we as human beings have the ability to make our own decisions in all matters of life? Is it left up to you and me to decide how our lives will be lived or is it up to God (the entirety of the universe)? We either have free will" or we dont. Many people love to say they have a little free will. A little free will means you do in fact believe in free will. This is a black or white issue. You either have free will or you dont. We cannot have two truths fighting against each other; if two truths do fight against each other then what you have is not truth. There can only be one truth in this matter and its about time to understand that Free Will" Is The Ultimate in Nonsense. By reading this bold and daring little book, you will quickly learn why the belief in "free will" is The Ultimate in Nonsense. This book along with The Newer Testament can prove and persuade you to the truth that free will doesnt exist. This book can also show you how a planet without free will is actually a better and more compassionate planet to live on. Enel Vale went to Emory University and received his masters from Fordham University. He is also a member of Mensa (the top 2% IQ society). He is the host of the "No Free Will" tv show in Manhattan, NY.

This book outlines the benefits, process, and must-knows of institutional investments. Professional asset and property managers, experienced and proven experts, select, purchase, upgrade and operate Delaware Statutory Trusts to maximize cash flow and long-term returns. Their firms have been producing average annual returns in the range of 13 percent and higher. This book will show you how the industry works, will help you determine if it's a good fit, and guide you in choosing professional advisors - not everyone holding a securities license is not created equal. The book also lets you peek into the lives and portfolios of real clients as they use this strategy to boost their own investments. The book also details more sophisticated uses of institutional investing like Sequential 1031 Exchanges, maximizing depreciation and long-term estate planning concepts. It's a can't miss for any serious real estate investor.
