The function of the Prophet has almost invariably been that of recovery. That implies that his business related to something lost. That something being absolutely essential to God's full satisfaction, the dominant note of the Prophet was one of dissatisfaction. And, there being the additional factor that, for obvious reasons, the people were not disposed to go the costly way of God's full purpose, the Prophet was usually an unpopular person. But his unpopularity was no proof of his being wrong or unnecessary, for every Prophet was eventually vindicated, though with very great suffering and shame to the people. If it be true that prophetic ministry is related to the need for the recovery of God's full thought as to His people, surely this is a time of such need! Few honest and thoughtful people will contend that things are all well with the Church of Christ today. A brief comparison with the first years of the Church's life will bring out a vivid contrast between then and the centuries since.

The need for the education of our prophets who are comprehensively trained is increasing. Prophets must obtain a firm biblical foundation along with their experiential training. This manual provides a firm

Chironna, M.A., Ph.D.; Mark Chironna Ministries; Church on the Living Edge, Orlando, Florida "I love this book! As a person passionate to see the most desired gift in the New Testament (1 Corinthians 14:1) flourish all over the world, I would recommend this book wholesale. It clearly and biblically describes how to function in the New Testament gift of prophecy and articulates various kinds of biblical prophets. If one heeds its principles, it will give greater understanding and produce higher levels of maturity in prophetic ministry."--Stacey Campbell, founder, Canadian Prophetic Council; author, Ecstatic Prophecy "This is a must-read for all ministries. As an apostolic ministry, we recognize the gifts and callings that God has placed on the lives of those we pastor. Reading School of the Prophets has given us greater insight and understanding of how to help develop and prepare others to walk in their divine assignment. Kris Vallotton brings much clarity in what it means to be called in the office of a prophet and eliminates the fear of giving and receiving the prophetic."--Tony and Cynthia Brazelton, founders and pastors, Victory Christian Ministries International "Kris Vallotton's book reminds us that the heart of prophecy should be God's heart to build up, encourage and speak life. Kris goes through strategic and important teaching about prophecy versus the office of prophet, specifically in the context of the Church. I highly recommend this book and pray that it helps you to understand the prophetic and to 'call the gold' out of those around you."--Heidi Baker, Ph.D.; co-founder and director, Iris Global "As I read this book, I could hear the sound of an entire generation of voices emerge that will transform culture. Kris Vallotton is a father to these voices. School of the Prophets presents a practical methodology for prophetic community and a powerful manifesto for prophetic transformation in this generation."--Bob Hazlett, author, The Roar: God's Sound in a Raging World; Future Perspectives, New Haven, Connecticut communities. Each graduate gains wisdom, understanding, practical tools, new found power and authority with humility to go forth boldly to walk in their purpose. Many believers died and never found their purpose in God's kingdom. A generation of souls perished because of the lack of leadership and instruction. This generation wasn't instructed or led into spiritual birth of destiny or precise aspiration. This causes them to have dreams and visions in a prophetic atmosphere navigating the mind of God to speak the oracles for his people. Prophetic training allows comprehensive understanding in order to bring forth revelation and move from stagnation to domination. You are destined to reign through prophetic insight, training and teaching. Your life as a prophet of God is unlike any other because God chose YOU as His servant.

This Book is Volume 4 of: The Prophetic Field Guide Series. Rejection is the middle name of the prophet. Though it may be hard to endure rejection at times and it may feel that you are walking this road alone, it can also be, and has many times been, the driving force that leads you to Jesus. The way of the prophet is one that goes through the cross, surrenders in death and rises up in resurrection power and authority. Deep inside you know that you have not gone through this hard road just to come out defeated. You have paved the way for others. For it is in the training of the prophet that he begins to realize that all of His scrapes and bruises along the way are the very thing that the people will be able to identify with. Just as Thomas looked at Jesus' hands and feet and could see the marks to prove that He was truly Jesus, so has your journey taken you though the cross so that you might bare those marks as well and identify with Jesus in His death and more gloriously, in His resurrection! In this book, you will see and find out about: How you have already gone through a process called "preparation" Making prophetic boot camp effective and quick! The Holy Spirit: Your personal trainer The importance of inner healing in the process Define and identify which category of prophet you are The secret key to resurrecting in power Passing through "Elijah Training" Why "Elisha
