« On y découvre un être beaucoup plus attachant qu'il ne le laisse transparaître en public, mais aussi l'image d'un homme à qui la vie a beaucoup donné, mais aussi beaucoup repris. » Eric Lefrançois, La Presse « Des anecdotes savoureuses et des secrets jusque-là bien gardés réussiront sans doute à faire connaître cet homme public redoutable dont les prouesses derrière le volant n'ont constitué qu'une facette de son métier de communicateur. » Louis Butcher, Journal de Montréal « Jamais déconnecté de la réalité, il est un homme de son temps et surtout un homme d'arguments. » Hélène Cantin, SRC - À LA UNE « Fascinant. » Robert Germain, Allô Vedettes

D'abord le résultat d'un travail de sélection rigoureux, puisque seul un Champagne sur cinq dégustés est retenu, ce guide des Champagnes a pour but de mettre en valeur des Champagnes de très haute qualité, d'un excellent rapport qualité-prix, et qui procurent un plaisir intense à la dégustation. Ces 66 Champagnes représentent un terroir, un vrai savoir-faire, et/ou une vraie passion. Ils sont le fruit d'une démarche réfléchie, qui s'accompagne souvent d'un comportement citoyen. Ici, pas de classement, de hiérarchie, de notes, de dégustations "à l'aveugle", censés rassurer le lecteur, et être un gage d'honnêteté et d'exactitude. Comment attribuer une note à un plaisir, à une émotion ? Non, simplement des "Coups de cœur " traduisant les émotions ressenties par des dégustateurs ayant, au contraire, le maximum d'informations sur le vin dégusté, pour mieux l'appréhender dans sa globalité. L'objectif est clairement de remettre le Champagne à sa vraie place, de le considérer comme un produit culturel, d'auteur, et de ne pas le rabaisser au rang de vulgaire bien de consommation, qui serait doté de performances que l'on pourrait mesurer objectivement. Ce guide des Champagnes, réalisé par Michel Véron, Professeur d'œnologie au Lycée Viticole de la Champagne, avec les étudiants de BTS Technico-Commercial en Vins et Spiritueux, dans le cadre d'un projet pédagogique original et ambitieux, s'avère surtout un outil pratique, indispensable aussi bien pour les professionnels que les œnophiles. Il est l'occasion d'un véritable parcours initiatique et organoleptique incontournable à travers les fabuleux terroirs de la Champagne, pour les futurs professionnels champenois. La réalisation de ce guide, et l'organisation de sa désormais traditionnelle "Soirée des grandes Cuvées de Champagne", au mois d'avril, au cours de laquelle les Chefs de cave viennent eux-mêmes présenter leurs Champagnes d'exception (prix supérieur à 100 € par bouteille) à un public de professionnels, permet aux étudiants d'acquérir une expérience unique et enrichissante : à la suite des dégustations, lors de la rédaction des commentaires, l'élaborateur de chaque Champagne sélectionné est interrogé sur ses pratiques techniques.

Introduction by the author. (Note: No new reviews have been added to this edition) Now that streaming services like Netflix and Hulu can deliver thousands of movies at the touch of a button, the only question is: What should I watch? Summer blockbusters and independent sleepers; the masterworks of Alfred Hitchcock, Billy Wilder, and Martin Scorsese; the timeless comedy of the Marx Brothers and Woody Allen; animated classics from Walt Disney and Pixar; the finest foreign films ever made. This capstone edition covers the modern era while including all the great older films you can't afford to miss—and those you can—from box-office smashes to cult classics to forgotten gems to forgettable bombs, listed alphabetically, and complete with all the essential information you could ask for. With nearly 16,000 entries and more than 13,000 DVD listings, Leonard Maltin's Movie Guide remains “head and shoulders above the rest.” (The New York Times) Also included are a list of mail-order and online sources for buying and renting DVDs and videos, official motion picture code ratings from G to NC-17, and Leonard's list of recommended films.

Une liste exhaustive des ouvrages disponibles publiés, en français, de par le monde.

The Young Man from Savoy is the story of Joseph Jacquet, a young man unlike others, whose once untroubled existence seems fated to unravel from the moment he catches a glimpse of the mesmerizing Miss Anabella. A high-wire artist with a traveling circus, Anabella becomes the object of an increasingly fantasizing obsession, and a catalyst for the bizarre and brutal acts that follow. Set at the beginning of the 20th century in a remote French village overlooking Lake Geneva, this elemental story of all-consuming love plays out against a backdrop that is at once idyllic, askew, and unearthly. Vividly imagined and masterfully wrought, The Young Man from Savoy is a meditative page-turner, a novel whose spare, mutedly lyrical prose stands in sharp contrast to the dramatic downfall it recounts. In this remarkable work, acclaimed French Swiss writer C-F Ramuz has left us a great and lasting legacy, a work of laconic and unsettling power.

In Critique of Black Reason eminent critic Achille Mbembe offers a capacious genealogy of the category of Blackness—from the Atlantic slave trade to the present—to critically reevaluate history, racism, and the future of humanity. Mbembe teases out the intellectual consequences of the reality that Europe is no longer the world's center of gravity while mapping the relations among colonialism, slavery, and contemporary financial and extractive capital. Tracing the conjunction of Blackness with the biological fiction of race, he theorizes Black reason as the collection of discourses and practices that equated Blackness with the nonhuman in order to uphold forms of oppression. Mbembe powerfully argues that this equation of Blackness with the nonhuman will serve as the template for all new forms of exclusion. With Critique of Black Reason, Mbembe offers nothing less than a map of the world as it has been constituted through colonialism and racial thinking while providing the first glimpses of a more just future.

"Bibliographic references to works pertaining to the taxonomy of Coleoptera published between 1758 and 1900 in the non-periodical literature are listed. Each reference includes the full name of the author, the year or range of years of the publication, the title in full, the publisher and place of publication, the pagination with the number of plates, and the size of the work. This information is followed by the date of publication found in the work itself, the dates found from external sources, and the libraries consulted for the work. Overall, more than 990 works published by 622 primary authors are listed. For each of these authors, a biographic notice (if information was available) is given along with the references consulted"--[p. 1].

Whether sculpture, painting, or multimedia installation, Edouard Duval-Carrié's work navigates the historically rich and culturally complex traditions that comprise a uniquely Caribbean perspective. Duval-Carrié's recent works attend to the themes of water, travel, and Francophone culture. For this artist, for example, water becomes both a symbolic passage and a barrier--the means by which enslaved Africans were brought to the Caribbean and modern-day Haitians migrate to the United States. Both circumstances have been driven by the force of capitalism that occupies the artist's work materially and iconographically. This exhibition of Duval-Carrié's art engages themes associated with the history of North Florida and the southeastern United States, including plantation agriculture, race, slavery, historical events such as Florida statehood, and such contentious historical figures as Andrew Jackson. Edouard's exhibited works will be accompanied by displays of plantation artifacts loaned from State of Florida collections, including a portion of a nineteenth-century sugar mill and iron crosses made for cemeteries of enslaved workers.00Exhibition: Florida State Museum of Fine Arts, Tallahassee, USA (16.02.-01.04.2018).

Deep trade agreements (DTAs) cover not just trade but additional policy areas, such as international flows of investment and labor and the protection of intellectual property rights and the environment. Their goal is integration beyond trade or deep integration. These agreements matter for economic development. Their rules influence how countries (and hence, the people and firms that live and operate within them) transact, invest, work, and ultimately, develop. Trade and investment regimes determine the extent of economic integration, competition rules affect economic efficiency, intellectual property rights matter for innovation, and environmental and labor rules contribute to environmental and social outcomes. This Handbook provides the tools and data needed to analyze these new dimensions of integration and to assess the content and consequences of DTAs. The Handbook and the accompanying database are the result of collaboration between experts in different policy areas from academia and other international organizations, including the International Trade Centre (ITC), Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), and World Trade Organization (WTO).
