aimed at helping

workers in the development and management of

services of health care facilities in developing countries in an effective and efficient manner. It has not been designed as an management, but rather as an aid to medical record officers (MROs) and medical record clerks by describing appropriate systems for Medical Records Departments in developing countries. It covers manual procedures and may be used as an adjunct to computerized systems. It does not provide all of the options for medical record management, but it does provide one option in each area for list the textbooks that provide detailed information on

also provided.

'Designing and

Health Care
Provider Payment
Systems: How-To

addresses this need. The book
has chapters on three of the most effective
provider payment
systems: primary care per capita (capitation)

based hospital
payment, and hospital global budgets. It also includes a primer on a
second policy
lever used by
purchasers,
namely,
contracting.
This primer can be especially useful with one provider payment method: hospital global budgets. The volume's final chapter provides an outline for designing, launching, and running a health management information system, as well
