. . . I wanted you more than you'll ever know, so I sent love to follow wherever you go. . . . Love is the greatest gift we have to give our children. It's the one thing they can carry with them each and every day. If love could take shape it might look something like these heartfelt words and images from the inimitable Nancy Tillman. Wherever You Are is a book to share with your loved ones, no matter how near or far, young or old, they are.

Acclaimed activist Philippe Cousteau and renowned author Deborah Hopkinson team up to offer a story of the powerful difference young people can make in the world. Meet Viv, who has a new home and a new school by the sea, and follow her as she finds her way in a new place and helps bring together a whole community to save the sea turtles of the South Carolina coast.

As her son grows up from little boy to adult man, a mother secretly rocks him each night as he sleeps.

A Newbery Honor WinnerA New York Times Bestseller This stunning fantasy inspired by Chinese folklore is a companion novel to Starry River of the Sky and the New York Times bestselling and National Book Award finalist When the Sea Turned to Silver In the valley of Fruitless mountain, a young girl named Minli lives in a ramshackle hut with her parents. In the evenings, her father regales her with old folktales of the Jade Dragon and the Old Man on the Moon, who knows the answers to all of life's questions. Inspired by these stories, Minli sets off on an extraordinary journey to find the Old Man on the Moon to ask him how she can change her family's fortune. She encounters an assorted cast of characters and magical creatures along the way, including a dragon who accompanies her on her quest for the ultimate answer. Grace Lin, author of the beloved Year of the Dog and Year of the Rat returns with a wondrous story of adventure, faith, and friendship. A fantasy crossed with Chinese folklore, Where the Mountain Meets the Moon is a timeless story reminiscent of The Wizard of Oz and Kelly Barnhill's The Girl Who Drank the Moon. Her beautiful illustrations, printed in full-color, accompany the text throughout. Once again, she has created a charming, engaging book for young readers.

As a family faces their darkest moments, this elegant novel paints a story of God's healing in the face of suffering.

A young woman, from a rich but destructive New England family, finishes college to work in France where she meets her Italian lover. Together they form an unusually passionate and tender bond. However, a misunderstanding between them which raises specters of her abusive parents, sends her fleeing back to the States, not aware she is pregnant. After her son's birth, she conceals her whereabouts from the boy's father. He, in turn, is desperate to find her and explain that his seemingly cruel actions were necessary to save her life. He is not successful. After fifteen years, her son - the image of his father - goes off to private school and she is faced with loneliness, separation and longing. She returns to France to find answers about the man she knows is her true love. She overcomes a painful truth about her brother-protector, the decline into madness of her mother and a lifetime of self-doubts to discover in herself the courage to claim her right to romantic love. In her Italian lover she finds 'home'. I'll Be Looking at the Moon received an Amazon Breakthrough Novel Award.
