To find out whether your state uses the TASC for high school equivalency tests, contact your state's department of education.

Comprehensive content review, strategies, and practice for all sections of the TASC (Test Assessing Secondary Completion) from top test experts. The TASC is a new high school equivalency test that is an alternative to the GED® test. New York State and Indiana will begin replacing the GED with the TASC in January 2014, and other states are likely to follow. Individuals seeking a high school equivalency degree in Nevada and Wyoming will take either the GED®, the TASC, or a new test called the HiSET. Other states that continue to offer the GED® test in 2014 may also decide to offer the TASC as an alternative to the GED® test. To find out whether your state will be using the TASC in 2014, visit www.tasctest.com or contact your state's department of education. This TASC self-study system includes: 1,000+ practice questions with detailed explanations 1 Full-length practice test 1 diagnostic pretest in the book Guidance for setting up a personalized study plan for the book and online materials Expert strategies for tackling the exam Instructional videos online or through your mobile device Essential skills you'll need to pass the reading, writing, social studies, science, and math subject areas Effective strategies for writing the essay Aligned to Common Core State Standards for Reading, Writing, Mathematics and Literacy in History/Social Studies, Science, and Technical subjects

Four units focus on the GED Social Studies topics: Civics and Government; U.S. History; Economics; Geography and the World. Each lesson includes an introduction to one of the content area subtopics, an example question modeled on the GED test, and hints, explanations, and definitions to help you understand the question. Guided practice offers support as you think through practice items. Extended response lessons help you prepare for the social studies essay prompts.--Back cover.

Comprehensive content review, strategies, and practice for all sections of the GED® Tests from a top expert. The GED® is a high school equivalency test that is recognized by educational institutions and employers throughout the United States and Canada. Every year, hundreds of thousands of individuals obtain GED® diplomas or certificates as a first step toward academic or professional advancement.
