A collection of four short stories about adolescents and their first sexual and romantic experiences.

Terminada a 2ª Guerra Mundial, além dos milhões de mortos, havia um incontável número de sobreviventes que perderam tudo o que possuíam e que necessitavam de auxílio. Ao redor do mundo surgiram várias entidades criadas por aqueles que conseguiram escapar da guerra, e que tinham o objetivo de ajudar esses refugiados a reencontrar suas famílias e reconstruir suas vidas. Motivadas por seu grande senso humanitário, um grupo de mulheres da comunidade judaica brasileira criou, em 19 de novembro de 1947, a Associação Feminina Israelita Brasileira de Auxílio à Infância Vítimas da Guerra – Vita Kemper, que posteriormente passou chamar-se apenas A.F.I.B. A entidade tinha como principais metas ajudar os judeus que se encontravam nos campos de deslocados e as crianças israelitas que haviam perdido seus pais, além de realizar atividades pessoais e culturais para os jovens da nossa comunidade. A primeira colônia de férias foi realizada em 1950 num hotel em Lindóia e da qual participaram 65 crianças. No ano seguinte, a segunda edição da colônia contou com a presença de 150 meninos e meninas num hotel em GUARAREMA. O grande sucesso dessas experiências pioneiras evidenciou a necessidade de se obter um local próprio para viabilizar novas temporadas de férias nos anos seguintes. Assim, em 29 de outubro de 1951 foi comprado a Kinderland em Sacra Família do Tinguá, que no verão de 1952 recebeu o primeiro grupo de jovens, apesar das pequenas e precárias acomodações existentes no local. Graças aos esforços das mulheres da A.F.I.B a colônia foi ganhando forma tornando-se cada vez mais confortável e preparada para receber o crescente número de colonistas. Foram construídos o refeitório, os pavilhões, o prédio da administração, a cozinha, a piscina, o campo de futebol, etc. Hoje em dia, o espaço tem capacidade de receber cerca de 150 pessoas de cada vez. Ao longo dos anos as transformações foram acontecendo. Novas pessoas surgiram com novas idéias, conforme as gerações se sucediam. A redução de dias de colônia, a criação de três turmas anuais e sua posterior transformação para 2 turmas, a criação da Comissão Pedagógica e a criação da Associação Kinderland que substituiu a A.F.I.B são exemplos das mudanças que ocorreram. Porém, desde 1950 até hoje, ainda há coisas que nunca mudaram: o espírito de colônia e a convivência em grupo em completa harmonia com a natureza. Essas são algumas das características que fazem da Kinderland uma experiência única e inesquecível na vida de uma pessoa. Na Kinderland, os colonistas têm a experiência de passar alguns dias longe de suas famílias, num clima único de atividades e emoções intensas, de liberdade e criatividade. E um convívio intenso e interpessoal de gente de férias, disponível para se

Forging Germans explores the German nationalization and eventual National Socialist radicalization of ethnic Germans in the Batschka and the Western Banat, two multiethnic, post-Habsburg borderland territories currently in northern Serbia. Deploying a comparative approach, Caroline Mezger investigates the experiences of ethnic German children and youth in interwar Yugoslavia and under Hungarian and German occupation during World War II, as local and Third Reich cultural, religious, political, and military organizations wrestled over young people's national (self-) identification and loyalty. Ethnic German children and youth targeted by these nationalization endeavors moved beyond being the objects of nationalist activism to become agents of nationalization themselves, as they actively negotiated, redefined, proselytized, lived, and died for the "Germanness" ascribed to them. Interweaving original oral history interviews, untapped archival materials from Germany, Hungary, and Serbia, and diverse historical press sources, Forging Germans provides incisive insight into the experiences and memories of one of Europe's most contested wartime demographics, probing the relationship between larger historical circumstances and individual agency and subjectivity.
