This book teaches about the difference between wants and needs. As Lily and her dad drive around running errands together, they discuss the things that Lily wants, but then decide if she really needs them. She knows that she needs to exercise to keep her body healthy, but she realizes she doesn't need a new bike to do so, she just wants one.

Knowing about wants and needs helps us to become better citizens. We should focus on needs of others and ourselves before focusing on wants. Wanting too much is wasteful and can be bad for the earth. · After discussing, students will go to their seats to complete a Needs vs. Wants Sort (worksheet shown below). They will need to cut out the pictures (or you could give them a ziplock bag of pre-cut pictures) and glue them onto a Needs vs. Wants Chart (also shown below).

Acting is Lily's passion and her husband Luke sets aside his frequent jealousy to encourage his gorgeous wife to chase her dream. Success comes slowly until Lily is paired with up and coming director Sebastian Shawl. Shawl first matches Lily with leading man Jimmy and his sexy Australian accent, and then handsome Trevor. The chemistry created sets the theater on fire and Lily begins to receive more offers and invites. He knows she's just acting, but watching his wife with other men slowly opens Luke to other possibilities. We follow our couple as Luke's jealousy turns to lust and shy Lily learns to be bold.

After her mother's death, Lily Owens and her African-American maid seek refuge from the racism of their South Carolina hometown with eccentric beekeeping sisters in this coming of age story representing the letter "K" in a new series of twenty-six collectible editions.
