A new kind of momcom role-playing adventure! Masato hears rumors of a newly built dungeon where whoever manages to make it through will be granted one wish. Since he's still well on his journey to try to become stronger than his mother, this could be just the answer to our hero's prayers. But the loudmouthed Anti-Mom Amante also has her sights on the dungeon's prize, and she and her goons from the Libere Rebellion will stop at nothing to keep Masato's party from getting there first. To make things worse, Mamako, his mother, is still dominating all the action...this time in a maid costume!!

A new kind of momcom role-playing adventure! Between befriending goblins, a stint as a substitute teacher, and now her role as a maternal affairs advisor, Masato's mother, Mamako, has been as busy as ever. Business is booming at her new mom shop, where she doles out advice to families in trouble...including the Catharn royal family! It's up to Masato and his party to play matchmaker for the game world's most eligible bachelor, the Prince of Catharn, and the quirky character designer who's obsessed with him. Will wedding bells ring for these potential ovebirds when all is said and done?!

A new kind of momcom role-playing adventure! Merry Mom-mas! The holiday season brings a special yuletide event to strengthen the bonds between parents and children...specifically, that is, between Hahako and the Libere Rebellion ' s Heavenly Kings! The time is ripe for making precious family memories and bringing smiles to children ' s faces. But when the situation takes a turn for the worse, will Santa Mamako come dashing through the snow to save the day?!

In the hopes of gaining some power-up items, Masato's party-minus Mamako-accept a quest that enrolls them in the MMMMMORG's only school, Gioco Accademia. There, Masato meets the smweet and beautiful Cleric Medhi (and her mother). Masato is suddenly filled with hope at the prospect of a high-school romance blooming-until Mamako shows up out of nowhere, at least!

When will we learn? With every sunrise we are given plenty of new examples of people " Hitting Send " and soon regretting it. Social media means what it says: it is social! Our methods of communication today allow for something to potentially be broadcast to everyone from Pekin, Illinois to Peking, China. But it ' s not only Twitter fanatics who can find themselves in trouble. Every single one of us is capable of falling prey to this growing plague. Every day we have the potential of both verbal and written blunders. It makes no difference if we are talking to a stranger over a meat counter, chatting on a cell phone with our mother, or sending an e-mail to a coworker; we can and do miscommunicate and people can and do get the wrong idea. When we don't pause long enough to think before speaking or writing, it commonly yields a misunderstanding and leads to a clash. We end up being the person who said, " You know that sphere of the brain that stops you from saying something that you shouldn't? Well, I don ' t have one of those. " This book is about preventing that misunderstanding and allowing for understanding. Said another way, preempting people from getting the wrong idea and enabling them to get the right idea! We all need work in this area in far more ways than just glancing through a checklist. From external examples to internal turmoil, Before You Hit Send is about the four things we must think through before communicating. In all things we wish to say or write, we would be wise to ask ourselves, Is it true? Is it kind? Is it necessary? Is it clear? When we ask and answer these four questions honestly, we will be thinking wisely before we speak. But to explore this fully, we need to find out a whole lot more about ourselves and uncover why we consciously and subconsciously get into these communication disasters to begin with. You may be surprised what you discover about yourself. Shall we begin?
