Mein Kampf (My Struggle in English): is Hitler's self-praising manifesto too treacherous to be read? It was in Germany for the last seven decades since Germany's defeat in the Second World War, but not in the "free press above all" United States. Hitler's autobiography has been released in 2015 for the first time since WWII in Germany. But many - especially Jewish groups - argue its publication should be blocked and banned forever out of respect for the millions of victims of the Nazis and to prevent resurging incitement of hatred, bigotry and intolerance. Hitler wrote Mein Kampf in 1924 with the help supporters especially Rudolf Hess while spending time in a minimum security prison after a failed coup. In a short 10 years Hitler became the absolute bloody dictator of Nazi Germany pushing democracy completely out of German social life. The book was a compulsory purchase for Nazi party members, and later practically replacing the bible with German families. Hitler became very rich from royalties by 1940 - estimated $40 million or more (2015 dollars). Hitler enjoyed spending millions, in lavish gifts and cash payments, to buy the loyalty of influential politicians and leading businessmen, to keep them dependent on Nazi rulers. Hitler made no distinctions between his own royalty money and that of the Nazi Party and even the German state, since he could get anything he wanted from the Third Reich government apparatus like it was his personal genie in a bottle. Hitler died as a rich man, committing suicide in his bunker as the Soviet Red Army troops were overrunning Berlin. The alternative was hanging

German forces and the European Axis powers occupied most of Europe and North Africa. Failure to defeat the Soviets and the entry of the United States into the war forced Germany onto the defensive and it suffered a series of escalating defeats. In the final days of the war, during the Battle of Berlin in 1945, Hitler married his long-time lover, Eva Braun. On 30 April 1945, less than two days later, the two committed suicide to avoid capture by the Red Army, and their corpses were burned. Under Hitler's leadership and racially motivated ideology, the Nazi regime was responsible for the genocide of at least 5.5 million Jews and millions of other victims whom he and his followers deemed Untermenschen ("sub-humans") and socially undesirable. Hitler and the Nazi regime were also responsible for the killing of an estimated 19.3 million civilians and prisoners of war. In addition, 29 million soldiers and civilians died as a result of military action in the European Theatre of World War II. The number of civilians killed during the Second World War was unprecedented in warfare, and constitutes the deadliest conflict in human history.
