Cicero has long been seen to embody the values of the Roman republic. This provocative study of Cicero's use of history reveals that rather than promoting his own values, Cicero uses historical representation to explore the difficulties of finding any ideological coherence in Rome's political or cultural traditions. Matthew Fox looks to the scepticism of Cicero's philosophical education for an understanding of his perspective on Rome's history, and argues that neglect of the sceptical tradition has transformed the doubting, ambiguous Cicero into the confident proponent of Roman values. Through close reading of a range of his theoretical works, Fox uncovers an ironic attitude towards Roman history, and connects that to the use of irony in mainstream Latin historians. He concludes with a study of a little-known treatise on Cicero from the early eighteenth century which sheds considerable light on the history of Cicero's reception.

As prospective Architecture students concerned with professional advancement, you are aware of the importance of good tools and backing of solid research. In this book, we offer you both. The book titled "Steps To Architecture" has been compiled to meet the requirements of students who wish to seek admission through NATA (National Aptitude Test in Architecture) conducted by COA (Council of Architecture) in India. It conforms to the latest test patterns and comprehensively covers each and every type of question which is encountered in the exams. The book covered both Drawing & Aptitude Test content as per New Pen and Paper Style. The drawings/sketches have been incorporated in this book so that the students may follow sketches perfectly coordinating the subject matter. In this book, numerous informative notes with sketches have been arranged to make students understand the subject. This is the only book presently in the market, which deals with each aspect of Architecture Entrance Exams and contains all relevant questions, making it exhaustive and complete in all respects.
