a WHOIS on ars.samsung.com shows it as part of samsung.com. this shows a table and the row for RV510 has 8GB as the maximum. (although I can't find a way to get to this page from the samsung site) on the online shops, theres about an equal amount that say 4GB as say 8GB max. for example; Scan & British Home Stores say 8GB, Dabs & aria say 4GB.

A humorous guide to seducing, satisfying, and loving the only man you'll ever need In an act of generosity, Adrian Colesberry has written an exquisitely detailed guidebook to ensure that every reader knows precisely how to please him-in bed and beyond. Brimming with self-indulgent and incredibly bawdy humor, How to Make Love to Adrian Colesberry is a humorous sexual memoir disguised as a manual on Colesberry's pet peeves, favorite positions, and surefire ways to turn on your man (aka Adrian Colesberry). Recounting dozens of annoying peccadilloes and helpful tips gleaned from his experiences with former lovers, Colesberry covers all stages of the court-andconquer-Adrian-Colesberry process. Beginning with how to attract Colesberry, he later progresses to foreplay and finally the full monty, revealing his own erratic, often unerotic sexual history along the way. A pitch-perfect parody that spares no detail, How to Make Love to Adrian Colesberry is a hilarious and filthy new entrant into the fratire genre.

The line began forming after eight o'clock. Sal, short and heavy-set, kept everyone busy. Neat, in a white shirt and sports jacket, with his grey fedora cocked to the side, his crooked grin made you smile. Without warning the heavy door would swing open and the waiters would come outside to join him. They were dressed in pajamas or prison garb, with hats and horns, and were there to warm up the crowd. Some in line expected this, others were shocked. The pink polka dot building should have been a warning. Complete strangers in line became chummy, exchanging stories they had heard, toilet seat covers to serve drinks on, microphones in the ladies room, toilet paper for napkins. Most had brought their friends there to be roasted. The line of people varied in age. They all dressed casually because they'd heard you could get a pie in the face or a squirt in the eye. The club's routines were blue in color, but harmless. If you were lucky you might see a "Balls for the Queen" or a "Singing beer." The price was always right for a good time and Warm Beer and Lousy Food was the place to be.

Excerpt from Department of Housing and Urban Development Urban Initiatives Program: Boston Housing Authority Proposal Since the inception of public housing programs in 1937, the Boston Housing Authority has been committed to providing safe, decent and sanitary housing for low income families and elderly residents of Boston. Today bha controls over housing units, one out of every ten housing units in Boston. Many of these units are located in developments troubled by a variety of physical, social and management problems. These problems have resulted from a combination of factors, including inadequate funding, management and maintenance difficulties, design deficiencies, obsolescence of major systems and equip ment, neighborhood deterioration, radical shifts in population, increasing frequency of crime and vandalism, and widespread feelings of fear and helplessness among public housing resi dents. There is no quick, simple and cheap solution to these problems, and a piecemeal approach simply does not work. The solution lies in an integrated and comprehensive approach which reflects the complex and interrelated nature of the pro hlems themselves. The Public Housing Urban Initiatives Program, using a comprehensive approach with substantial funds to back it up, provides the Boston Housing Authority with a real oppor tunity to begin to address these problems.
