A key aim of an intensive English language course in the UK will be to consolidate the grammar that the student will already have learnt in a lively and motivating way. At the same time many of the teachers working in intensive courses in the UK will be relatively inexperienced and will be looking for easy to use extra resource material.

Using plays in the language learning classroom will develop students' general confidence as well as their language skills as they become involved in a story and play a 'role'. Timesaver

Plays presents situations and problems which are relevant to teenagers and will provide a stimulating break from the course book for students and teachers.

Vocabulary acquisition \- increasing the number of words a student knows- will be a key objective for any language course. Titles covering the field of vocabulary acquisition will always be a natural list area for supplementary resource publishing- and will always be amongst the best selling part of the list.
