True love takes no prisoners...Gabriel knew he'd been captured the moment he first saw her. Magdalene was unlike any other. He'd tried to resist. He was her superior, an archangel after all. But you know what they say about resistance... And then... ALL hell had broken loose. Lucifer and the forces of Darkness had crashed the very gates of heaven This marked another major phase in the Great War in heaven. It seems it had never ended. Lucifer would not be content to lay still in the deep dark pit we had cast him down into. He had to be reckoned with. Gabriel knew that any feelings he had for her would have to be put on hold. Heaven was at risk and he needed to defend it. But could he just let her go that easily? Especially since he had been requested to leave immediately on a special mission to Earth... with HER He knew he would protect her. With his life, if he had to. But how could he be that close to her under such intense pressure? He was about to find out. They both would. Take a journey along the Path of Light, in this passionate paranormal romance, to a place where those who dare to venture will be forever transformed. Get in now Book Two due for release June 2019.
