the story of Vikar, a young architecture student so enthralled with the movies that his friends call him “ cinéautistic. ” With an intensely religious childhood behind him, and tattoos of Elizabeth Taylor and Montgomery Clift on his head, he arrives in Hollywood—where he ’ s mistaken for a member of the Manson family and eventually scores a job as a film editor. Vikar discovers the frames of a secret film within the reels of every movie ever made, and sets about splicing them together—a task that takes on frightening theological dimensions. Electrifying and “ darkly funny, ” Zeroville dives into the renegade American cinema of the 1970s and ’ 80s and emerges into an era for which we have no name (Publishers Weekly). “ Funny, disturbing, daring . . .
