This comprehensive Understanding treatise can be used as the course text or as a supplement to any insurance law casebook. Insurance Law is designed to make the substance of insurance law accessible to the student and to the general practitioner unfamiliar with the subject. The premise of this book's organization is that insurance law is best understood if its legal principles are arranged according to the various stages in the life of a contract. Part A considers the question "what is insurance law." Part B considers issues germane to the establishment of the contractual relationship between insurer and insured. Part C considers issues relevant to the performance of contractual obligations. Finally, Part D examines a few topics that defy easy categorization, including special problems in group insurance, special issues in automobile insurance, issues in reinsurance, and a new chapter on excess and umbrella coverage.

Understanding Insurance Regulations & Coverage is an authoritative, insider's perspective on key strategies for advising both insurance providers and consumers. Featuring partners and shareholders from some of the nation's leading firms, these experts guide the reader through the nuances of navigating the regulatory environment at both the state and federal level, including how current and future trends in insurance regulation are influencing providers and consumers. From licensing a new insurance company to filing claims, these authors highlight important factors for providers in complying with government regulations and for consumers in obtaining appropriate insurance coverage. Additionally, these leaders reveal their strategies for risk management counseling, understanding overlapping policies, and negotiating with insurance providers both when establishing coverage and throughout the claims process. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts on guiding clients through this ever-changing and complex area of law. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies nationwide, rather than third-party accounts from unknown authors and analysts. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/though leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is headed and the most important issues for the future. Through an exhaustive selection process, each author was hand-picked by the Inside the Minds editorial board to author a chapter for this book. Chapters Include: 1. A. Kenneth Levine, Chair, Insurance and Financial Services Practice Group, Broad and Cassel - "Regulatory and Legislative Issues in Insurance Law" 2. Katharine F. Musso, Partner, Balch & Bingham LLP - "Counseling to Address Regulatory Issues" 3. David Taubenfeld, Partner, Haynes and Boone LLP - "Leading the Way Toward Proper Insurance Protection" 4. Meghan H. Magruder, Senior Partner, King & Spalding - "Insurance Claims and Insurance Recovery" Appendices Include: Appendix A: Insurer Organizational Chart Appendix B: Insurer General Agency Agreement Appendix C: Managing General Agency Agreement Appendix D: Producer Agreement
