Below are some of my favorite short inspirational poems for when life gets tough: 58. Trouble But Not Defeat by Byron Pulsifer. Underneath our feet we find. Those branches and thorns a grind. Why is so life so mean. It is as if no other scene. Through life, you know, you will find. We sometimes just close our minds.

Remember, you are a child of God, and God Will take care of you. Kathleen Godwin is passionate about inspiring others to share joy, love, hope, faith, peace, and kindness not just with themselves, but also with others. In a debut collection of poetry, Godwin leads believers on a lyrical spiritual journey inspired by her faith in her Savior, Jesus Christ, as she reflects on all the gifts God provides on a daily basis. Her explorations touch on diverse themes that include the value of time as we journey toward our life 's destinies, the importance of simplicity and of loving our neighbors as ourselves, and how we can all become Jesus 's reporters carrying out a divine mission to share the good news with everyone who crosses our path. Inspirational Poems and Encouragement for Everyone shares verse that reminds believers to sing praises to God and use their talents to build His kingdom on a foundation of love, joy, hope, faith, peace, and kindness.

INSPIRATIONAL POETRY

This wide-ranging collection of inspirational poetry and prose offers readers solace, perspective, and the courage to persevere. In times of personal hardship or collective anxiety, words have the power to provide comfort, meaning, and hope. The past year has seen a resurgence of poetry and inspiring quotes—posted on social media, appearing on bestseller lists, shared from friend to friend. Honoring this communal spirit, How Lovely the Ruins is a timeless collection of both classic and contemporary poetry and short prose that can be of help in difficult times—selections that offer wisdom and purpose, and that allow us to step out of our current moment to gain a new perspective on the world around us as well as the world within. The poets and writers featured in this book represent the diversity of our country as well as voices beyond our borders, including Maya Angelou, W. H. Auden, Danez

"I am The Rage is a timely look at generations of trauma and inaction." — Bustle For fans of Amanda Gorman's The Hill We Climb and Morgan Parker's There are More Beautiful Things Than Beyoncé, comes a diverse poetry collection like no other. From two Black women of two different generations, I am The Rage provides insights that no think piece on racism can; putting readers in the position of feeling, reflecting, and facing what it means to be Black in America. Dr. Martina McGowan, a retired doctor and grandmother, uses powerful free verse poetry to express the range of emotions and thoughts she had following the deaths of Breonna Taylor and George Floyd, and the subsequent Black Lives Matter protests, giving readers a glimpse into an experience that may or may not mirror their own. Contributing her art, Diana Ejaita's work has been featured in Vanity Fair, The New Yorker, The New York Times and The Economist. "The poetry is so intense, the book is so strong, I am very honored...every word was turning and touching my soul. Very emotional," said Ejaita in reaction to her poems being a part of this groundbreaking and educational collection.

this common-core aligned book that sheds light on teen issues through their own poetry and slam poetry performances. Get Lit Rising brings to life the true story of nineteen teen poets (the Get Lit Players) who are inspiring thousands of teens across the country through their award-winning performances of classic and spoken word poems. This book takes readers inside the private lives of these teen poets as they try to transform the lives of inner city teens in some of the toughest life circumstances. The Get Lit Players include teens who are homeless, autistic, have parents in jail, battle with weight and body issues, depression, and more. But they use the power of poetry to pursue lives of promise and to reach out to friends, families, and communities. This uplifting book also offers the classic poems that have most inspired the Get Lit Players, along with their own personal response poems, and each chapter offers questions, writing prompts, and how-tos for readers to set their own inner poet free. Ending with a section for parents and educators featuring the curriculum that 's already in schools throughout California, this slam-dunk shows how to get teens excited about poetry and how to create poetry groups and slams in their own communities.
